

CALL FOR INTERPRETERS

efsli trainers' seminar

Application deadline 15th March 2012

For the efsli Trainers' seminar, 17th – 19th September 2012, in Graz, Austria, efsli calls for interpreters for Austrian Sign Language – English and International Sign - English. The efsli Trainers' seminar follows the efsli AGM & conference, and interpreters applying to work at the conference are encouraged to apply to the efsli Trainers' seminar as well.

Austrian Sign Language interpreters

A team of Austrian Sign Language (ÖGS) interpreters to work between English and ÖGS is required. Interpreters will receive 450 Euros per day (taxes included) for their interpreting services; travel expenses (up to 100 Euros), hotel¹ (3 nights) and meals will be paid for.

Prerequisites: Positive accreditation examination with the Austrian Association of Sign Language Interpreters (ÖGSDV).

International Sign interpreters

Teams of International Sign interpreters to work between English and International Sign are required. One team will work the full seminar, and one team from Monday 17th till Tuesday afternoon 18th September (1.5 days). Interpreters will receive 450 Euros per day (taxes included) for their interpreting services; travel expenses (up to 250 Euros), hotel² (3 nights) and meals will be paid for.

Prerequisites: Relevant training or experience in international conference interpreting.

Letter of Interest:

Teams of interpreters are encouraged to apply. Send a letter of interest with your conference interpreting strengths and weaknesses, and your résumé/CV and two reference letters by 15th March 2012 to: president@efsli.org

¹ For interpreters who do not live in Graz

² For interpreters who do not live in Graz